EXAM ADVISORY

The Army Training Support Center is aware that some students are cheating on The Army Distance Learning Program (TADLP) course and module/subcourse examinations and we have taken steps to deter it. We have implemented routine system software checks to identify suspected incidences of cheating and attempts to circumvent the policies and procedures of TADLP. Students who are suspected of cheating on examinations are subject to Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), articles 107, 132, and 134.

Students are required to use their own work when submitting solutions for grading.
